Note on the right to obtain information pursuant to Section 118 AktG

Each shareholder must be furnished information, if so requested, at the General Meeting of Shareholders to the extent necessary for a proper evaluation of an item on the agenda. This duty of information also extends to the legal and business relations between the Company and affiliated companies. If the consolidated financial statements and group management report are submitted to the General Meeting of Shareholders of a parent company (Section 244 of the Austrian Business Enterprise Code UGB), the duty of information also extends to the situation of the Group and the companies included in the consolidated financial statements.

The information must comply with the principles of conscientious and fair accounting. Information will be given at the General Meeting of Shareholders.

Information need not be disclosed if:–

1. according to reasonable entrepreneurial judgement it would be liable to cause considerable damage to the Company or any affiliated company, or
2. disclosing it would be an offence under the law.

Each shareholder attending the General Meeting of Shareholders is entitled to receive information. This right is due not just to shareholders but also to their legal representatives or proxies.

Any question which requires a considerable time input for its reply should, in the interest of time management at the General Meeting, be furnished in text form to the Management Board in good time prior to the General Meeting of Shareholders. Questions may be mailed to A-1110 Vienna, Dampfmühlgasse 5, Legal Department, att. Ms Daniela Schrenk, or e-mailed to investor.relations@doco.com.

Information on the right of shareholders to submit motions to the General Meeting of Shareholders pursuant to Section 119 AktG

Each shareholder, regardless of how many shares such shareholder holds, is entitled to submit motions to the General Meeting of Shareholders on any item of the agenda, provided that such shareholder furnishes proof of entitlement to attend the General Meeting as specified in the invitation. This right is due not just to shareholders but also to their legal representatives or proxies attending the General Meeting.
